Temporary Housing for Issues of
Cage E441.G23

THE

GENIUS OF UNIVERSAL EMANCIPATION,

A

MONTHLY PERIODICAL WORK,

CONTAINING

ORIGINAL ESSAYS, DOCUMENTS, AND FACTS,

RELATIVE TO THE SUBJECT OF AFRICAN SLAVERY.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal, and endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.—Dec. Independence, U. S.

BENJAMIN LUNDY, EDITOR.

VOLUME I. FOURTH SERIES—COMMENCING JANUARY 1834.

PUBLISHED IN PHILADELPHIA.
1834–36.

INDEX TO VOL. I.—FOURTH SERIES.

No. I.

Preliminary Address, Pages 5, 6. Anti-Slavery Convention, 7, 8, 9, 10. Fem. A. S. Society of Hudson, N. Y. 11, 12. Green Plain Free Produce Society, 13. Public Meeting in London, 14, 15. Miscellanies, 16. Slave Trade, Effects of Slavery, An example, Morning, 17. Chrismas, To Prudence Crandall, The eleventh month, 18. Laws of Slavery, Philada. A. S. Society, 19. Texas, Agents, 20.

No. II.

Notices, Anti-Slavery Convention, Page 21. Important confession, (Colonization,) 22, 23, 24, 25. Why not go to the South? 26, 27. "Danger of emancipation," 28, 29. Edwards' sermon, 30, 31, 32, 33. Lundy Female Society, 34. Colonization Meeting, Maryland Legislature, Wm. Goodell, 35. Richmond Enquirer, Notices, Texas, 36.

No. III.

Notices, Letter from B. Lundy, at Monclova, in Mexico, Kentucky Emancipation Society, Pages 37, 38. American slave trade, 39, 40. Address, by Dr. E. P. Atlee, 41, 42, 43. Annual Meeting of the Colonization Society, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48. Education, Fem. A. S. Associations, 49. Free Products, My cottage home, 50. Sonnet, Alice, Free Labor, 51. Brown's eulogium on Wilberforce, Women of America, Women's proceedings in England, Negroes for swap, 52.

No. IV.

Memoir of Evan Lewis, Pages 53, 54. Anti-Slavery cause in New England, 55, 56, 57. John Jay on Slavery, 58. Jamaica, 59. Newgarden A. S. Society, 60. Lane Seminary in Ohio, 61, 62. Portrait of Slavery, 63. Notice Am. A. S. Society, Letter from Dr. E. P. Atlee, to W. L. Garrison, on the death of Evan Lewis, 64. Female A. S. Associations, Turning loose, 65. Abolition, Anti-Slavery Reporter, A true ballad, 66. The Eagle a symbal in war, 67. Gradual abolition, Means of abolishing slavery, Wilberforce, A. S. Societies in Vermont, Notices, &c. 68.

No. V.

Letter from Theodore D. Weld, Page 69. Doctrine of expediency, 70. Society of Friends, Cushman on Slavery in a Christian community, 71, 72, 73. Letters from Liberia, 74, 75. Debate in Lane Seminary, 76. Obituary—E. Lewis, 77. Little Henry, Juvenile composition, Lecture by C. W. Denizen, Miss Crandall, 78. Wm. Jay on colonization, 79. Mexico, by B. Lundy, 80. The Emancipator, 81. Temperance and Colonization, 82. Mr. Gurley in New York, Dymond's essays, Temperance and abolition, 83. Lamentation for Lane Seminary, 84.

No. VI.

Immediate emancipation, Pages 85, 86. Anti-Slavery meetings in Philadelphia, Colored people shut out of the churches, 87. Emancipated slaves, 88, 89, 90. African intellect, 91, 92. Meeting for the formation of the Philadelphia A. S. Society, 93, 94, 95. Boston Convention, 96. Gradual emancipation, 97. March ramble, 98. Thy thunder pealeth o'er us, Letter from B. Lundy, at Nashville, Tennessee, 99. A voice from Kentucky, 100.

No. VII.

Great Colonization Meetings, Page 101. Communication of D. L. Fisher, 102, 103. Riot at Chatham Street Chapel, N. Y., 104, 105, 106. Address of the President of the Conventional Board of the colored people of N. Y., 107. Virginia House of Delegates, 108. Amalgamation, 109. Letter from B. Lundy at New Orleans, to the patrons of the G. U. Emancipation, 110. Rumors of intended mobbing in Philadelphia, 111. Catechism for children, 112. The poor negro, 113. The Christian Gazette, 114. N. Y. Police, Origin of the bucaners, 115, 116.

No. VIII.

"Nil Desperandum," Anti-Slavery Societies, publications, &c. Page 117. Mobocracy,

What should abolitionists do? 118. Persecution of abolitionists, "Incendiary publications, 119. Mexican Colonization—W. L. Garrison, 120, 121. District of Columbia, Insurrection in Texas, 122, 123, 124. The new Mexican Constitution, Astounding doctrines, 125. Black List, Enthusiasm and intemperate zeal, Gerrit Smith, Emancipation, Genuine philanthropy, 126. My country, (Lines written at Monclova,) Obituary notice of E. M. Chandler, address to philanthropists, 127. Address to patrons, &c. 128.

EXTRA AND CIRCULAR.

No. IX.

Editorial Notice, Bearing testimony against slavery, Slavery in the Methodist Church, Page 129. Lines on the death of J. C. T., 130. The war in Texas, 131, to 141.

No. X.

Anti-Slavery movements, Mob Law in Missouri, Page 145. West India emancipation, 146. Cultivation of cotton, 147. Great meeting of the people, 148. The war in Texas, (continued,) 149, to 164.

No. XI.

Editor's address, Petitioning Congress, Page 165. The standards falling, "Slave trade abolished"! The mother and her captive boy, 166. Horrible tale, Pawtucket Juvenile A. S. Society, Cabinet of Freedom, 167. Discussion between George Thompson and R. J. Breckenridge, Foreign slave trade, 168. The war in Texas (continued,) 169, to 184.

No. XII.

Notices to patrons, English Female A. S. Society, Page 183. Memoir of Elizabeth Margaret Chandler, 184, 185. Monody on the death of E. M. Chandler, 186. The War in Texas, (concluded,) 187, to 191.